SAN MARCOS
DISCOVER LIFE'S POSSIBILITIES

Dear San Marcos Parks and Recreation,

I've recently received notice that the city is planning to destroy the dirt bicycle jumps off of Via Vera Cruz. I understand that the potential of injury is a liability for the city however we can put in place systems that prohibit traffic at the jumps, ensure safety precautions are taken, and create a safe environment for less experienced riders. I'm aware of complaints from concerned neighbors however if more people are for the jumps they should be kept there. I also suspect most neighbors complaints are based off of suspicion and if they knew we were just building jumps it would provide clarity and put them at ease. I would like to keep the jumps there as it promotes all ages to be active and is a fun way to get exercise. We have spent many hours building jumps and would be devastated to see them destroyed in just a few minutes by a plow. This is a standard email which many people will be sending to show their support to keep the jumps.

Thank You,

Kyle Sherrer

To whom it may concern,

My name is John Hanley, I am 19 years old, and have lived in San Marcos, specifically Discovery Hills, for 9 years. I am writing this email in regards to the dirt jumps by the intersection of Honeysuckle Drive and Via Vera Cruz. I personally have a lot of history at that spot, and have spent countless hours there riding my bike, and building jumps. While I also enjoy fishing and surfing, there is something about riding my bike that is so pure to me, especially when it is on jumps that I have personally built. When I was younger, there was nothing I was more passionate about then building dirt jumps and riding my bike, and when the jumps were destroyed years ago I lost something very special to me, but in the last two weeks of building and riding I have rediscovered my passion and would like to do everything I can to preserve it. I understand that there are a few big problems with that area, I know that the jumps are a huge liability to the city, and that there are other things that area is used for that are not beneficial to the community, as well as people leaving their trash there and not treating the area with respect, but I believe there are solutions to these problems other than getting rid of the jumps.

The liability issue I believe is the most prominent and most difficult to find a solution for, however I have two ideas that might work and I would love to hear any feedback or possibly other methods that would lessen the risk of the city. The first idea being that we set up some kind of waiver system, where we get signatures from kids parents or adults wanting to ride at the jumps. I have discussed this option with my peers I ride with and they all have enthusiastically expressed their willingness to enforce this system to any new riders they see in order to keep the city out of risk. My other idea was to treat the jumps almost like a skatepark. I am not entirely sure as to how the legal side of skateparks work, but from my research it seems as long as we keep the jumps in a safe ride-able condition, make sure people are not endangering others with their riding, and there are posted signs to ride at one's own risk, this may decrease the chance of somebody suing. Those are my ideas on removing the threat of liability on the cities part, and if those ideas can be improved or better steps can be taken, I am open to doing anything within my power to keep the jumps there.

Another prominent issue is the fact that underage people use that area to smoke pot and drink alcohol, and create an unsafe or unpleasant environment for people living around the area and using the adjacent trails. This is an extremely unfortunate truth about the location, but behavior my friends and fellow riders do not support or permit their. Whenever we suspicious people we try to give them the benefit of the doubt, but if we suspect that they are going to smoke or drink, we tell them off and have made people leave before they are able to start doing these things that put us riders in a bad light. We are hoping the huge increase of traffic in that area and presence of younger kids will ultimately discourage any of that activity in the future of that spot. We have also done what I believe to be a good thing by picking up any and all trash we find back in the area, and have instituted a rule that everyone who goes back there must take 3 pieces of trash with them when they leave. This is unfortunately very easy to do, and many of us have been taking full bags of trash out with us because of all the trash we have found while digging.

In the long run I feel as though leaving the trails there to be ridden will only benefit the community in the long run. In the most recent weeks that I have been digging and riding there, I have seen how much a place like that can bring all sorts of people together. From the people in their early thirties and forties, who have offered to help build or film us riding and take professional pictures, to kids not older than ten years old like my older brother who have finally found something they find fun enough to get them outside and off the television, and everyone in between, the jumps just get people excited. I ask that instead of removing the jumps, we look at other ways to solve the issues at hand and heighten the quality of life even more in our city. Thank you very much for your time, and I really do hope we can find a solution to this that benefits all parties.

A concerned citizen,
John Hanley

Dear San Marcos Parks and Rec.

The dirt jumps off of Via Vera Cruz are important to the morale of the residents nearby. These jumps have been worked on by many people, and countless hours of nonstop determination and hard work. Kids around the jumps base their lives around those jumps. They dedicate their time and efforts to creating a fun activity for all. Even athletes use these jumps as practice for competitions. Safety precautions can be made to ensure the city of San Marcos has no liabilities. Bike traffic can be fixed and rules can be made. Once again, please do not destroy these jumps.

Sincerely, Wyatt Cole

Dear Jay Franklin,

My name is Martin Lopez Jr. I am a student at Rancho Buena Vista High School. I will be graduating in 2019.

I'm writing to you today regarding The Parks and Recreation meeting on February 20th. The idea of Rugby being the fastest growing sport in America is incredible. I think it would be a great idea if every city had a rugby team. That way the sport can grow within our communities.

Thank you for your time. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
