CLOSE PUBLIC COMMENTS

Planning Commissioners discussions included: Height limitations and setbacks; thanked staff for the presentation; two-story ADUs with a single-story home; tax assessment on the property; applying to single family homes and not Specific Plans; AB976 not applying to Junior ADU for owner occupancy requirement.

Staff response: The City cannot impose more than 4 feet. Setbacks are required at 4 feet. Roof pitch of ADU must align with the existing dwelling. This ordinance does not cover tax assessments. This does also apply to Specific Plans. We are not sure why the State made that requirement regarding Junior ADUs.

Action:

COMMISSIONER SAULSBERRY MOVED TO RECOMMEND APPROVAL TO CITY COUNCIL RESOLUTION PC24-5115 FOR TA24-0003 AND ADOPT EX24-013; AND SECONDED BY COMMISSIONER KILDOO. MOTION CARRIED BY A ROLL CALL VOTE.

AYES: COMMISSIONERS: BARNETT, KILDOO, NORRIS, RIOS, CARROLL, FLODINE, SAULSBERRY

NOES: COMMISSIONERS: NONE

ABSENT: COMMISSIONERS: CAVANAUGH, RICO

ABSTAIN: COMMISSIONERS: NONE

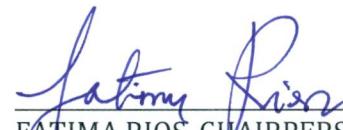

PLANNING DIVISION DIRECTOR COMMENTS: The Pacific project went to City Council July 23rd and was approved 4-0. There was a Council member absent. This project originally came in at 449 units. After meeting with regulatory agencies, staff recommended a proposed 228 units alternative on the south side of the project site along Linda Vista Road. City Council approved the 228-unit alternative. We have a few tentative projects that may be ready for the September meetings.

PLANNING COMMISSIONER COMMENTS: What are our RHNA counts?

Planning Director response: I do not have those exact numbers readily available. The RHNA numbers are separated into Very Low, Low, Moderate, and Above Moderate. We've met the Above Moderate and Moderate requirements, but we are still behind on the Low and Very Low. ADUs are not counted towards the Low and Very Low numbers but do count toward are overall housing allocation. They are not deed restricted, which makes them fall under the Moderate and Above Moderate numbers.

ADJOURNMENT

At 7:07 p.m. Chair Rios adjourned the meeting.
